

General Information for Streaming Programs at Smithsonian Associates

About Our Streaming Programs

- Smithsonian Associates uses Zoom.
- Most of our streaming lectures, seminars, courses, and series programming are Zoom webinars.
- Most of our streaming studio arts classes and workshops, select lectures and series, and camps are Zoom meetings and will have stricter capacity rules to ensure more hands-on interaction between participants and instructor/speaker(s).
- Common FAQs about our Streaming Programs on Zoom.

Registration for You and Your Guests

- If you register multiple individuals, you will be asked to supply individual names and email addresses so they can receive a Zoom link email. Please note that if there is a change in program schedule or a cancellation, we will notify you via email, and it will be your responsibility to notify other registrants in your group.
- Unless otherwise noted, registration for streaming programs typically closes two hours prior to the start time on the date of the program.
- Once registered, patrons should receive an automatic email confirmation from CustomerService@SmithsonianAssociates.org.

Zoom Link Communications

- Separate Zoom link information will be emailed closer to the date of the program.
- Zoom links will come from no-reply@zoom.us.
- For Zoom webinars: If you do not receive the Zoom link within 24 hours prior to the start of the program, make sure to check your spam/junk folder first. Otherwise, please email Customer Service for assistance.
- For Zoom meetings: Zoom links are typically provided 7 days prior to the start of the program.
