

Smithsonian Associates

Painting in the Key of Color: A Streamlined Approach to Color in Painting

With Nick Cruz Velleman

Supplies needed:

- Beginner watercolor set: no more than 12 colors (should have at least two reds, two blues, and two yellows. tubes of paint preferred)
- One watercolor brush roughly size 18
- One watercolor brush roughly size 10
- One watercolor palette (larger than what comes with a travel watercolor set, we need SPACE to mix)
- Two small containers for water
- Paper towels
- Pad of watercolor paper, at least 6 sheets, at least 9x12" 140lb/300gsm