A letter to students from your instructor

Hello,

I'm looking forward to our Encaustic and Mixed Media Class. There is a supply list including bringing wood support. The size should not be larger than 11" x 14," but one or two inches larger should be fine. You are welcome to bring a smaller size to experiment with.

Bring or wear old clothes (including old pants and old shoes). The wax and oilstick may not wash out of your clothes! Wear something you don't mind getting paint on.

For your wood support, I'd recommend birch or pine, with a thickness of .5" or larger so that you will be able to screw in a D ring for hanging. Unprimed- do not apply gesso. The exception is if you purchase Ampersand Encausticbord which is pre-primed with encaustic gesso. (NOT acrylic gesso.)

Other boards:

Ampersand Value Series Artist Wood Panels- Handcrafted Ampersand Value Series Unprimed Basswood Artist Panels

Dickblick also sells their own brand:

See link below from R & F Paints about supports. I get my wood from Home Depot. Hardware stores may carry wood and cut it for you. Plaza Art and dickblick.com carry the Ampersand boards.

Do not use clayboard as the encaustic paint may slip off of the clayboard.

Suggestions for art to bring (depending on your background, preference in media, etc.) are drawings in charcoal or pencil; watercolor; prints on paper. If you are working on photographs, you should not have glossy or coated paper. You could also bring in photocopies on regular copy paper (black only, NO COLOR COPIES.) Do not bring artwork with acrylics as encaustic paint will not work with acrylic. You do not have to bring any art with you. You can start your encaustic paintings without existing art and use the techniques you learn to create your painting.

Below is a list of miscellaneous items if you'd like to work in collage too. I will be bringing in items, but you might have some things of your own you'd like to include in a mixed media painting. My website is below. You can get an idea of how I work, and what kinds of items I include in my mixed media paintings.

Thank you,
